FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ESTES-WERTHER NAMED GENERAL COUNSEL FOR LEAGUE

PHOENIX (Dec. 18, 2014) – Christina Estes-Werther will become General Counsel for the League of Arizona Cities and Towns in January according to Ken Strobeck, League Executive Director.

Estes-Werther is currently the State Elections Director in the Arizona Secretary of State's Office and previously served as Deputy General Counsel to Governor Jan Brewer and on the research staff of the Arizona State Senate. She is a graduate of the University of Arizona and received her law degree from Gonzaga University in Spokane, Washington.

"Ms. Estes-Werther has the background and experience to bring great value to the League and to our member cities and towns," Strobeck said, adding, "she can provide the broad range of legal services that are needed on a daily basis for both internal and external issues, and she is a great addition to our League team."

About the League:

The League of Arizona Cities and Towns is a voluntary association of all the 91 incorporated cities and towns in the State of Arizona. It provides policy and legislative advocacy, information and inquiry services, along with publications and educational programs to strengthen the quality and efficiency of municipal government. It was founded in 1937 to serve the interests of cities and towns and to preserve the principles of home rule and local determination.
